Subject;- Immigration clearance of coastal vessels and tug, badge

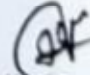

Refferance ;- Ministry of home affairs (foreign devison – immigration section) no.25016/84/2021-imm date 23/08/2021

In regarding the instructions issued by the ministry of home Affairs , Govt of india new Delhi on the subject cited the matter has been renewed and it is now decided that following procedure will be followed at the kandla seaport ICPs while granting clearance to the coastal run vessel.

If Indian flag vessel and badge or tug performing coastal run are plying only between Indian ports with Indian crew then they need be subjected to immigration procedures i.e. sign on/sign off etc. when these coastal vessels, badge and tug are converted to foreign run vessels or these coastal vessels are having foreign crew, all immigration procedure i.e. sign on /sign off etc. may be followed.

All the agencies especially ship agents are directed to implement as per above instructions. In this regard, all the shipping agents may be sensitized for compliance.
Thanking you.
